

FAMILY HISTORY

BEARL FENN GASHLER, HISTORIAN, (John Fenn Family Assn.) P.O. Box 203 Provo, Utah 84601	place in Provo, Utah 2 Nov 1898. Frank Martin Brown, who was a Pharmicist, had his own Drug Store in American Fork, Utah.
D U P Clipping Martha Fenn Billingsley	Martha B. Fenn lived with her daughter LoVina for many years. She had gone to visit her son, Warren in Nyssa, Oregon for several months, where she took ill and died. She died 14 Feb. 1918.
Seabell Martha Fenn Billingsley born 13 Jan. 1844, Mississippi. Pioneer of 1850.	In addition to her son Warren T. Fenn, she is survived by the following children. Mrs. John S. Rollo, Mrs. William Twelves and Arch Fenn all of Salt Lake City, Mrs. S. J. Jones of Prov , Ray E. Fenn of Midvale and Mrs. Frank M. Brown of American Fork, Utah.
Seabell Mrs. Martha B. Fenn died in Oregon. A telegram received by John S. Rollo, 385 D. Street announces the death in Nyssa, Oregon, yesterday morning of Mrs. Martha Billingsley Fenn, Mother of Mrs. Rollo. Mrs. Fenn, who was born in Fontotoc, Mason County, Mississippi. She was the daughter Judge Elijah and Emeline Northcott Billingsley, both of whom were prominent in the early history of the Mormon Church.	Funeral Services 1:00 P.M. Sunday. 1st Ward chapel Provo, Utah. Buried at Provo Cemetary.
The family came to Utah in 1850 and settled in the vicinity of Provo, where Mrs. Fenn resided continuously until her husband Thomas Fenn died, 17 April 1885. Mrs. Martha B. Fenn was married 25 Sept. 1864. Thomas Fenn died at an early age of 44, leaving his widow Martha and eight children.	Copied by Norma Brown Billingsley Dallof
After the children were grown, with the help of LoVina Emeline and Arch Fenn, who helped raised them and put them through school. One by one they each married.
Martha Billingsley Fenn resided with her daughter, LoVina E Fenn Brown. The marriage of LoVina and Frank took	